

Farthest North Girl Scout Council
Job Description

Position Title: Health Supervisor
Accountable to: Camp Director
Salary: $1,800

Position Summary

The Health Supervisor is accountable for the general health and safety of campers and staff and to promote and maintain wellness throughout camp.

Qualifications:

- Current RN, LPN, EMT.
- Experience working with children and adults.
- Flexibility, patience, and good sense of humor.
- Ability to respond quickly and efficiently to emergency situations.
- Good organizational skills.
- Willing to work as a team member.
- Preferred Age: 25 years or older. Minimum age: 21
- Valid driver's license and clean driving record.

Key Responsibilities:

- Attend and participate in pre-camp training.
- Provide health and first aid in accordance with Girl Scout policies and be accessible for emergencies.
- Maintain and operate Health Center in accordance with Girl Scout health policies.
- Screen incoming campers and maintain all medical paperwork and reports.
- Maintain first aid equipment across camp.
- Safely store and dispense medications.
- Requisition and inventory infirmary supplies before and during camp.
- Stimulate interest in basic cleanliness, health education, and safety practices.
- Assist with all camp programming as duties allow.
- Willingness to perform all other duties as assigned by supervisor.