Total application cannot exceed 4 single-sided pages, not including this cover sheet. Additional pages beyond 4 will be discarded.

In a minimum of 2 pages, and a maximum of 4 pages, please nominate your choice for Girl Scout/ BP Woman of Distinction. Tell our selection committee how this woman is, and has been, a role model for the mission of Girl Scouting which is “to build girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.”

- 1. Explain how your nominee has been creative and accomplished in her business, professional, family or personal life. Accomplishments may come from early in life and/or may include obstacles she has overcome.
 - 2. Explain how your nominee has helped make her community become a better place to live, by sharing her talents or expertise. Describe how this makes her a role model for young women.
 - 3. Tell about her qualities of integrity, motivation, dedication, leadership and/or teamwork. See the list of Girl Scout values in the Promise and Law to help you describe the nominee.
- You may include ideas and quotes from others who know the nominee, but remember not to exceed the 4 page limit. We can only choose 3 nominees a year, so please resubmit next year if your nominee is not chosen.

Drawing attention to these individuals as role models for Girl Scouts and our community fosters our great community spirit and citizenship. Thank you for nominating a woman for this honor and for supporting this worthwhile endeavor to acknowledge and celebrate wonderful women in Alaska.

Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law

Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do,
and to respect myself and others,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place, and be a sister to every Girl Scout.

Twenty-Third Annual

Women of Distinction

Presented by Girl Scouts and BP Exploration

Objectives of the Women of Distinction Fundraising Event:

- To recognize women from Fairbanks and surrounding communities in northern Alaska who have demonstrated qualities of outstanding leadership and excellence in their professional, family and/or personal endeavors.
- To highlight women's achievements in our community, providing girls and young women with positive role models.
- To fund programs, purchase equipment, and increase resources for the Farthest North Girl Scouts.

Selection of Honorees:

- The awards committee will consider nominations of women who have contributed to the Fairbanks or northern Alaska communities through professional, family and/or personal endeavors.
- Candidate will only be selected if she is available to attend a photo shoot the week of March 4th and have her photo in the newspaper; attend an Awards Dinner in her honor on May 2nd with a reception preceding the dinner; and be receptive to the possibility of presenting her achievements to area Girl Scouts to inspire the next generation.

Please express your thoughts of your nominee as directed on the reverse side of this page. Your information will help in the selection. Please be detailed, specific, and where applicable, cite examples.
Nominations must be received by 5:30 p.m., Friday, Feb. 22, 2019.
