

MINI BOW 2020

Information Sheet

Mini BOW: Mini Becoming and Outdoor Woman
Friday, May 29 - Sunday, May 31, 2020

Mini BOW is based on the Department of Fish & Game's Becoming an Outdoor Woman events. This 2-night, 3-day camp-out teaches Girl Scout Juniors-Ambassadors valuable outdoor skills through fun and informative skill sessions, taught by trained experts.

Here are a few things to know before registering:

- Mini BOW will be held at South Pond, in the Chena Flood Control Project
- Mini BOW is limited to girls who are going into 5th grade in fall of 2020 and older
- Registration is on a first come, first served basis with 60 available spots
- Girls can register as a troop or individually for $75 per girl
- The $75 fee covers all meals and supplies for the sessions and must be paid in full when registering
- Girls will be assigned to patrols made up of 5-8 girls each
- No RVs or campers allowed, only camping tents
- No electronics of any kind will be allowed, we'll take photos, don't worry!
- There will be no electricity or running water, but there will be port-a-potties
- Dietary restrictions cannot be accommodated and girls will be responsible for bringing their own food if needed
- Mini BOW staff & volunteers may not be able to accommodate all special needs
- Girls must bring their own tents and sleeping pads & bags, no cots
- Girls cannot be picked up early or dropped off late, except in an emergency
- Vetted and approved volunteers arranged by the Council attend at no cost
- The $75 fee is non-refundable and non-transferrable

On the day of arrival at Mini BOW:

- Girls will be dropped off by 3pm on Friday, May 29th
- There will be no snacks provided before dinner on Friday night at 5pm, please make sure girls eat something before they arrive at Mini BOW
- Pick-up is scheduled for 12pm on Sunday, May 31st
